

Ruth Davis, Head of Programme Cyber, Criminal Justice and National Security , techUK

Ruth has a background in political research and business. She joined techUK from Policy Exchange where she worked as a Research Fellow in the Crime and Justice Unit. Prior to that she advised the Home Affairs Select Committee on its borders and immigration and cyber crime briefs. She has previous experience as a strategy consultant for Deloitte and as a political adviser to the Shadow Minister for Home Affairs and Counter Terrorism, Crispin Blunt MP, where she focused on cyber security.